Questions You May Have

What Does The Price Cover?

The price of $90 per person covers...

Lodging, materials at the work sites, T-Shirt, meals during your time at the event (Dinner Friday through Breakfast on Sunday), group outing & more.

Tell Me About The Locations:

Tsunami has expanding the "Estoy Loco" events to 2 cities now.

Beaufort, SC and Winston-Salem, NC

Beaufort is a beautiful seaside town in the low-country of South Carolina. It is about 45 south of Charleston.

Winston-Salem, NC is our traditional location and is an amazing city in the middle of the Triad.

Lodging & Meals Situation:

Beaufort, SC: The groups will stay at Beaufort High School. This is where they will eat, sleep, shower and fellowship. Projects will take place in communities around Beaufort.

Winston-Salem: The groups will stay on air mattresses (that you will bring) in the gymnasium of the Children's Home. Showers are available at the Brantley Retreat Center and you will have plenty of opportunities to take showers. You will not have a bed. On the majority of mission trips you take, you will have to sleep on the floor. It is our plan to give you a real look at what larger and longer mission experiences may be like.

All meals will be provided at the event. They will not be gourmet, but they will certainly fill your belly.

What Do We Need To Bring?

A supply list of what you can bring as a group and what each individual will need to bring will be put on the Tsunami website by May 2010. It will include air mattress, linens, towels, tools, swimsuit, etc.

Work Being Done: There's a wide-variety of tasks to be accomplished on the weekend. These could be painting, building and more. You will be notified as the time gets closer.
